

29 November - 1 December 2024

A group of local entrepreneurs has come together to create a unique program celebrating the best of Porto Covo - from local cuisine and wines to hospitality and art. This special event promises to captivate all senses, offering visitors an authentic and surprising experience.

PROGRAM

Friday / November 29

Four-Hands Dinner at Restaurant Lamelas

At Lamelas, Chef Michele Marques combines her creativity with traditional Alentejo flavors in a memorable four-hands dinner, providing an unmissable experience for food lovers.

Saturday / November 30

Four-Hands Lunch at Slow Sea, Praia Hotel & Spa

Chef Hélio Loureiro joins the Slow Sea team to create a special lunch highlighting the coastal flavors, blending tradition with innovation.

Four-Hands Dinner at Alma Nómada

Chef Lucas Azevedo partners with Alma Nómada for a dinner where local flavors receive a contemporary touch in a creative culinary experience.

Open Doors: Experience Porto Covo's Hospitality

From 3 pm to 6 pm, a variety of accommodations in Porto Covo, from hotels to guesthouses, open their doors to the public, providing a glimpse into the comfort and authenticity of local hospitality.

Wine Tasting at Abranda Wine Bar

Join us for two guided tastings with local winemakers, offering a flavorful journey through the region's winemaking tradition and diversity.

Oyster and Sparkling Wine Tasting at "O Pescador"

The seafood restaurant "O Pescador" invites guests to taste fresh oysters accompanied by sparkling wine.

Sines Ocean-Aged Wine Tasting

On Saturday, savor wine aged in the ocean off Sines, a unique experience blending Alentejo's terroir with a maritime touch.

Equestrian Experience at Herdade do Pessegueiro

Herdade do Pessegueiro accepts bookings for an equestrian experience, allowing visitors to explore the Alentejo landscape on horseback.

Sunday / December 1

Four-Hands Lunch at Volta do Mar, Sines Sea View Hotel

Chef Daniel Costa presents new creations at Volta do Mar, promising a lunch of culinary innovation and bold flavors.

Permanent Culinary Experiences

Restaurant Miramar

With stunning ocean views, Miramar serves traditional dishes like Whelk Stew and Shrimp Migas with Fried Shrimp.

Pizzeria Bella Vita

On the pedestrian street, Bella Vita offers its exclusive Black Linguine with prawns, monkfish, and mussels, a tribute to the flavors of the sea.

Sorriso

A new spot for breakfast or takeaway options for hikers on the Rota Vicentina.

O Pescador

This seafood restaurant on the pedestrian street presents its signature "Porto Covo Seafood Platter" along with a special Shrimp Risotto.

Mute

Near the lighthouse, Mute serves a weekend brunch with breathtaking sunset views from the rooftop. For each meal, a special dish will be offered by Chef Regina.

Exhibitions and Activities Throughout the Weekend

Tradition and Nature

Hiking and Biking Trails: Porto Covo is a gateway to the Rota Vicentina trails, with routes for all levels, including trails to Vila Nova de Milfontes, Cercal, and Sines, as well as circular trails. For walks or bike rides, the area's natural beauty and heritage invite exploration and stand as a top attraction in the post-summer months.

Art Exhibition at the Arts Center

Sines Municipality celebrates local artists with a showcase at the Arts Center.

Surf Lesson by Costa Azul Surf School

Costa Azul Surf School offers a surf lesson over the weekend, providing a unique experience on the waves of our coast.

Horse-Drawn Carriage Rides at Monte da Bemposta

Available on Saturday and Sunday by reservation, Monte da Bemposta offers a special carriage ride, giving a unique view of Porto Covo.

Inflatable Park at Porto Covo Garden

The garden in Porto Covo hosts an inflatable park throughout the weekend, bringing joy to both children and parents.

Alentejano Singing in the Restaurants

During Saturday night dinners, groups of Alentejano singers will visit the participating restaurants, singing a song or two at each, adding a touch of cultural heritage to the event.

Local Services and Information

Porto Covo offers various open businesses over the weekend, including newsstands, a tobacco shop, Galp gas station, and an EV charging station. For more information, visitors can contact Porto Covo's tourist office at the Parish Council.

Loja do Castro

The newly opened Loja do Castro will be open, showcasing the diversity and quality of regional products.

Join us at Sabor a Porto Covo and discover a village that combines authenticity, innovation, and a passion for hospitality.

